

Arkansas Emergency Disaster Resources

Arkansas Residents:

Below are links to several local nonprofits and other organizations that have made it their mission to assist those impacted by the severe weather.

- American Red Cross of Arkansas
- People Trust Community Loan Fund
- Salvation Army
- Arkansas Foodbank
- EngageAR Disaster & Emergency Services
- Sheep Dog Impact Assistance
- Arkansas State Baptist Convention Disaster Relief
- Arkansas Farm Bureau Foundation
- Arkansas Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster

According to FEMA: residents or businesses who sustained damages can apply for assistance at www.DisasterAssistance.gov or by calling (800) 621-FEMA.

Little Rock, AR Residents:

According to City of Little Rock's Mayor Frank Scott: FEMA has a presence at the Family Assistance Center to assist individuals applying for federal disaster aid. The Family Assistance Center also has meals, supplies, resources, and services for those impacted by the tornados. Several services are available.

The Family Assistance Center is open from 10AM – 7PM daily, and located at:

315 N. Shackelford Road
Little Rock, AR 72211

Sherwood, AR Residents:

According to the Office of Emergency Management (OEM): The City of Sherwood, AR is urging its residents to NOT pay for debris removal. The city has a contract in place for debris removal. They ask that you remember to separate the green waste and the construction waste and put it at the edge of your yard/street. Again, do not pay anyone to haul away waste. If you need help getting debris to the street, please email:

jalexander@cityofsherwood.net
hjenkins@cityofsherwood.net

There are volunteers ready to assist. Also, if you would like to volunteer, they are requesting that you please check-in at the Jack Evans Senior Citizens Center located at 2301 Thornhill Drive, Sherwood, AR 72120.
